Thursday, April 20th at 7 PM at the NCJW Offices at 295 N. Lindbergh, 63141

Recent events prove anew that from the Supreme Court to local municipalities, the courts are essential to our democracy. The selection process that keeps Missouri judges fair and impartial is under attack by our governor and legislature. Don't miss this fascinating, interactive look into how the judicial process impacts the lives of women and families. And learn important steps you can take to keep the selection of judges fair and unbiased.
