

Blacks in America: 400 Years Plus

A Trilogy Commemorating the 400th Anniversary of Blacks in the U.S.

Black Struggle, Resiliency, and Hope for the Future

Sunday, February 10

3:00-5:00 p.m.

Graham Chapel

Washington University in St. Louis

Keynote speech by the Hon. Wesley Bell,
St. Louis County Prosecutor

Performances by: Missouri AME Conference Choir,
Better Family Life's K.Y.P.E. dance troupe, and more!

RSVP at blacksinamerica.eventbrite.com

Free and open to the public - Parking in the Danforth University Center Garage

Save the dates for two additional 400 Years events (details to follow):

June 2 & November 10, 2019