

NO MORE THOUGHTS & PRAYERS

A Documentary and Non-Partisan Panel on Gun Violence

Sun., Mar. 24, 3-5 p.m., Fellowship Hall

Join Manchester UMC's Gun Violence Team for a documentary film and educational panel discussion. The event includes a Q&A session, followed by an action opportunity. Learn about the many non-partisan ways to support common-sense gun legislation. Open to the public.

manchester  umc

129 Woods Mill Rd. | Manchester, MO 63011
636-394-7506 | manchesterumc.org

Director and Panelists

Angela Lamb, director

A filmmaker and author, Angela was compelled to create a film after Parkland, FL to help stop children from being slaughtered in schools. "No More Thoughts & Prayers" is the result of her desire to halt this national public health epidemic.

Morgan Lowe

Morgan is a 22-year-old student from Belleville, IL. In her last year at SIUe, she will be graduating with a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration in May. She is co-founder of Ceasefire STL, and is an activist for causes like Black Lives Matter.

Dr. Renee Manley-Markowski

Renee is a pediatric emergency physician at SSM Health Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospital, and an assistant professor in pediatrics at St. Louis University School of Medicine. She is a native St. Louisan who is adamant about violence prevention.

Brian Wingbermuehle

Brian is a freshman at St. Louis University where he is co-leader for Students Demand Action St. Louis, the affiliate of Everytown for Gun Safety. He has been featured in the Washington Post, St. Louis Post-Dispatch and wrote for Teen Vogue.

Colonel Scott Will

With almost 35 years in law enforcement, Scott is now Manchester's Chief of Police. He is a former Adjunct Professor and Area Chair of the Criminal Justice Department at the University of Phoenix, and former member of the Joint Terrorism Task Force.

129 Woods Mill Rd. | Manchester, MO 63011
636-394-7506 | manchesterumc.org